

Barbara A. Campagna/Architecture + Planning, PLLC

Barbara A. Campagna, FAIA LEED AP BD+C has worked for the past 25 years as an architect, planner and historian – reinventing and restoring historic and existing buildings. She has lectured extensively, organized many conferences, serves on a variety of non-profit Boards, teaches, writes and is the author of two books including Changing Places: ReMaking Institutional Buildings which focuses on the adaptive use of historic asylums and prisons. She is the recipient of the National AIA Young Architect of the Year Award 2002 and was elevated to Fellowship in the AIA in 2009. Barbara was the Chief Architect for the 29 historic sites operated by the National Trust prior to starting her firm. She specializes in the integration of sustainability and historic preservation.
